

Central Park - From 20th-21st between Winnie and Ball

Although shown on the William Sandusky's 1845 Plan of the City of Galveston map, it was not until the mid-1870s that it was landscaped as a public park. It featured oak trees, cocoa grass, yuccas, roses, and of course, oleanders.

Image courtesy of Rosenberg Library, Galveston, Texas SC137.50.