

Galveston Daily News Building - 2108 Mechanic

Built 1883 - 1884 with the renowned Nicholas Clayton as architect. It is said to be the first building the U.S. designed solely for a newspaper plant. Built in a neo-Renaissance style, it housed the Daily News for more than 80 years.

Read the Historic American Buildings Survey here.

Image courtesy of Rosenberg Library, Galveston, Texas SF-Ave CFF4#3.