

Texas Heroes Monument - Intersection of 25th and Broadway

A bequest of Henry Rosenberg to honor the heroes of the Texas Revolution, this grand bronze statue stands 72 feet high and has a granite base. It was unveiled to the public in 1900 and designed by Italian sculptor Louis Amateis. The top of the statue features Victory pointing towards San Jacinto and at the base has Defiance and Peace, along with portraits of Sam Houston and Stephen Austin. It also depicts the battle of the Alamo, Goliad and two episodes from the battle of San Jacinto.

Image courtesy of Rosenberg Library, Galveston, Texas G-14881FF4#7.