

Trinity Episcopal Church - 701 22nd Street

Built 1857 in a Gothic revival style, Trinity is the oldest Episcopal church building in Texas. Designed by architect John de Young the building survived the 1900 Storm, but lost the south wall facing Eaton Chapel. It was raised 4 1/2 feet in 1925.

Image courtesy of Rosenberg Library, Galveston, Texas G-8421FF1.