2020 IN DEPTH - WINTER & SPRING

SPECIAL EVENT DETAILS

Hug-a-Bug-a-Boo February 1 at 3pm
Interactive show with music & puppets by Mrs. Kate. Recommended for young family audiences.

Quilting in the African American Tradition February 17 at 4pm
Did you know enslaved people escaped using maps stitched into quilts? Kids will leave with a paper quilt block from the Underground Railroad Quilt. Find out more in this program with Sharon Gillins. Parents, grandparents, & guardians are welcome!

What’s All That Jazz About? February 26 at 4:30pm
Clever listening games, live music, dramatic storytelling, group participation, & humorous demonstrations lead the audience through a highly interactive & entertaining program presented by Shenole Latimer to introduce the colorful & expressive American music known as Jazz. Recommended for ages 4-10 & their families.

Master Naturalists February 29 11am-3pm with Presentation at 3pm
Coastal wetlands specimen petting zoo (insects, shells, grasses & other natural wonders) brought to you by the Galveston Bay Area Texas Master Naturalists, with a 3pm presentation about the Bay Area’s wetlands & wildlife. A Galveston Reads program.

Escape Room March 12 10am-6pm or March 13 10am-6pm
Recommended for children 6+. Daylight Savings Time has our Time Machine all out of whack! Solve puzzles and follow the clues through history to Spring Forward back to the Present. Sessions for the Escape Room start periodically; sign up at the Children’s Reference Desk.
