COMMENTS FROM LIBRARY GUESTS

"We really loved it all at Hogwarts Open House! Thank you for hosting such a fun and inclusive event!"

-Katharine Galindo

"I love what you guys are doing with your library expanding what you have to loan out! Such an awesome idea!" -Zephyr Frank

"I am so glad Rosenberg Library gave us the opportunity to see Science Heroes shows. It was awesome and my little one loved it. We love all of the events the Library puts on." -Stephanie Souza Mayeux

"The exhibit on 4 was wonderful. I loved all the artwork with the houses." - Pix Smith, Dallas Puppet Theater

"I'm proud of you Henry, you made a smart choice!" - Crenshaw ES 2nd Grader, after seeing the Rosenberg statue and being told about how he gave the money to start the Library

"What a fun night at Harry Potter Halloween Night at the Rosenberg Library in Galveson! This was such a cool family outing and it was all free to the public. We did not expect to carve and bring home full size pumpkins! We did not know they would have live snakes, but Ronald LOVED it and I accidentally had an 11 foot albino python on my neck. Fun memories were made!"

- Ronnie Ross

Rosenberg Library hosted the wildly popular family event "Hogwarts Open House" on October 24 and utilized the entire library grounds with full staff participation. Many families remarked that it was the best Harry Potter event at the library to date!

On October 17, the Friends of Rosenberg Library hosted a wonderful Staff Appreciation Luncheon that was truly appreciated by all employees. Many staff members have stated that this is the best Friends group they have worked with at a library.

Throughout the month of October, we hosted multiple Voting 101 panels in partnership with League of Women Voters and helped individuals in our community register to vote.
