COMMENTS FROM LIBRARY GUESTS

"The unraveling event at Rosenberg Library with Bonnie is a fantastic time! You can grab some yarn, and she'll teach you the stitches while sharing helpful resources. Plus, you'll enjoy great conversations in a lovely room while crocheting or knitting. I had an absolute blast—it's so much fun!" -Stephen Loughlin

"What an amazing experience today with Breanna. It was our first book reading and I am in love with this sweet author and her books. Thank you for everything!!! We will be back this week to visit the library!" – Rebecca Goforth

"Love our Library! Have been a fan since I could toddle. And spent 4 of my adult years working in the basement. Rosenberg Library keeps getting better & better." -Elizabeth Godbehere

"How wonderful to see Christmas cards from the past...who would have ever thought ...it would be used to catalog historic times in such a classy way!" -Judith Hughes

IN DONATIONS

The staff of Rosenberg Library would like to thank the Board for giving all employees a wonderful Christmas party in the Fox Room! The Staff Association orchestrated an amazing holiday party complete with Soul 2 Soul Catering, games, and door prizes.

Rosenberg Library hosted a West End Pop-Up Library event in partnership with Way West Grill & Pizzeria. Children were given free pizza and enjoyed a storytime with Santa!

Rosenberg Library thoroughly enjoyed hosting "Dickens Tea Time" as an official Dickens on The Strand event. Oliver Dickens was on hand to teach the history of his ancestor Charles Dickens and library staff taught guests etiquette and the art of tea time!
