COMMENTS FROM LIBRARY GUESTS

“Rosenberg Day was such a fantastic event! They had freebies on all four floors, as well as at the front and side of the building. My favorite part was petting the baby kangaroo. I also grabbed a bag of goodies that included a fridge magnet, a button, a keychain, some books, postcards, a shirt, and a beach blanket.” -Stephen Loughlin

“Had a wonderful time at Rosenberg Day. My sister & I never miss it. Thank you Henry Rosenberg & thank you library staff! You are all amazing!!!” -Mary McFather

“Rosenberg Day was amazing! Many thanks to all who worked hard to make it so wonderful!” -Lindsey White

Rosenberg Library hosted its fourth-annual Rosenberg Day, which rallied the community together for a fun-filled day of live music, activities, a petting zoo, face painting, and bounce houses. The highlight of the event was the Friends Annual Book Sale, which many guests anticipate the whole year. It was a wonderful day celebrating the legacy of Henry Rosenberg!

Rosenberg Library proudly welcomed the community to the Fox Room for a lecture series featuring the Moody women and the Moody Papers Collection. The evening was helmed by Mary Moody Northen Endowment Researcher Sharon Batiste Gillins and Rosenberg Library's Melinda Guay.

We were thrilled to award our 6th graduate of Excel High School (our online accredited program) a diploma in March! She dreams of becoming a state-certified translator and this was an integral step toward making that dream a reality.
