COMMENTS FROM LIBRARY GUESTS

"The Rosenberg Library Extension Services has been one of those wonderful free services that some libraries offer, and we are most fortunate to have a full library as Rosenberg's. Particularly, since I am handicapped, Marilyn at Extension Services has been my legs for me and brought books that appealed to me. Marilyn has a very pleasant personality. The library card holder tells Marilyn what kinds of books they enjoy reading, and Marilyn will pick out some well-suited titled reading materials for them to read. If there are some books in the batch she brings to you, she will return them when she gets back to the library."

"Always my favorite library." -Amy Judd

"My wife literally had us move so we could be close enough to walk to Rosenberg Library."

Rosenberg Library proudly hosted the opening of the current "Weathering the Storm" exhibit - a celebration of the 160th anniversary of Juneteenth and the 125th anniversary of the 1900 Storm. The event was well supported with more than 100 in attendance and was highlighted by the The Daily News.

Rosenberg's Galveston and Texas History Center partnered with Bailey Brantley (pictured) from the San Jacinto Battleground State Historic Site to provide local Texas history buffs with the "18 Minutes That Changed Texas" presentation. The event was well attended and ran longer than the program's scheduled timeslot due to an enthusiastic question and answer session and thoughtful discussion.

Rosenberg team members completed library-specific Spanish courses designed to better assist Spanish-speaking patrons with navigating the library system.
